CANCELED: FDOT to Reschedule In-Person Public Hearing for Proposed Improvements to U.S. 17 from South of New Berlin Road to Airport Center Drive

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Due to impending weather associated with Hurricane Helene, the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) has canceled the Sept. 26 in-person public hearing to discuss proposed improvements for U.S. 17 from south of New Berlin Road to Airport Center Drive. A new date for the in-person hearing option is to be determined.

A virtual public hearing option will still take place tonight, Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 5:30 pm. To attend the virtual hearing, visit www.nflroads.com/VPH to register.

The hearing serves to inform the public of the proposed improvements and provide an opportunity for the public to express opinions and concerns regarding the project.

Draft project documents and other information are available for public review at the Highlands Regional Library, located at 1826 Dunn Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32218, and at the FDOT Jacksonville Urban Office, located at 2198 Edison Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32204, as well as on the project website at www.nflroads.com/US17.
