FDOT to Host “Road to Your Future” Career Fair February 26

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – As part of the Florida Department of Transportation’s (FDOT) statewide workforce development initiative, the agency will host a “Road To Your Future” industry-wide career fair on February 26 from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Jacksonville Equestrian Center, located at 13611 Normandy Boulevard, Jacksonville, Florida 32221.

The "Road To Your Future" event offers a unique opportunity for job seekers to meet and engage with transportation industry professionals, explore a variety of careers in the transportation sector, and potentially be hired on the spot. Over 40 industry partners will be onsite.

This career fair is designed to connect talented individuals with diverse roles, including heavy equipment operators, engineers, skilled trades, administration and more.

Interested parties are encouraged to pre-register for the event by visiting www.RoadToYourFuture.com, however walk-ins are welcomed, and onsite registration is available.

FDOT is hosting similar hiring events throughout the state of Florida. For more information and to find an event near you, please visit www.RoadToYourFuture.com.

The "Road to Your Future" career fairs began in 2024 in an effort by FDOT to recruit talent for Florida's growing transportation industry. These events, supported by over 140 industry partners, play a crucial role in connecting job seekers with a wide range of career opportunities. While FDOT leads the career fair, the success of these events is heavily reliant on the participation of industry partners.
